

ATTACHMENT A

The following individuals may have discoverable information relevant to Plaintiff's claims and LexisNexis' counterclaims. LexisNexis reserves the right to call any person identified in Plaintiff's Initial Disclosures and any person identified by either party during discovery.

By identifying the following individuals, LexisNexis does not consent to any ex-parte communications with any of LexisNexis' managerial employees.

1. Plaintiff

Plaintiff is believed to have information regarding his resignation; his employment agreement; his transition of duties and responsibilities after his resignation; and the agreement that he would not be paid any severance in exchange for receiving compensation pursuant to certain incentive plans that he would not otherwise be entitled because of his resignation.

2. James Peck
Chief Executive Officer
LexisNexis, Risk & Information Analytics Group
c/o McGuireWoods LLP
1170 Peachtree Street NE
Suite 2100
Atlanta, Georgia 30309

Mr. Peck is believed to have information regarding Plaintiff's resignation; Plaintiff's employment agreement; Plaintiff's transition of duties and responsibilities after his resignation; and the agreement that Plaintiff would not be paid any severance in exchange for receiving compensation pursuant to certain incentive plans that Plaintiff would not otherwise be entitled because of his resignation.

3. Laurie Villa
Vice President, Human Resources
c/o McGuireWoods LLP
1170 Peachtree Street NE
Suite 2100
Atlanta, Georgia 30309

Ms. Villa is believed to have information regarding Plaintiff's resignation; Plaintiff's employment agreement; Plaintiff's transition of duties and responsibilities after his resignation; and the agreement that Plaintiff would not be paid any severance in exchange for receiving compensation pursuant to certain incentive plans that Plaintiff would not otherwise be entitled because of his resignation.

4. Kurt Sanford
President and Chief Executive Officer
U.S. Corporate and Public Markets
LexisNexis
c/o McGuireWoods LLP
1170 Peachtree Street NE
Suite 2100
Atlanta, Georgia 30309

Mr. Sanford is believed to have information regarding Plaintiff's resignation and Plaintiff's transition of duties and responsibilities after his resignation.